Marilyn Silverman, 65, of Cranston, stricken while swimming

Marilyn "Lynn" Silverman, 65, of 181 Belvedere Drive, Cranston, died yesterday at Berkshire Medical Center in Pittsfield, Mass., where she was taken Thursday morning after being pulled from the water of Ashmere Lake in Hinsdale in Berkshire County, Mass.

"It appears she was out swimming and had a heart attack," a member of the family said yesterday.

The family was on vacation and Mrs. Silverman, whom they described as a strong swimmer, went into the water of around 7:30 a.m. A cousin found her floating in the water.

Born in Newport, she was the wife of Irving Silverman and the daughter of the late George and Dora (Kaufman) David. She had lived in Cranston for many years.

She was a 1951 graduate of Bryant College, a member of Temple Sinai and its Sisterhood and a life member of Hadassah.

Besides her husband, she leaves two sons, George Silverman of Phoenix, Ariz., and Daniel Silverman of Manchester, Conn.; a daughter, Donna Sternbach of Marlboro, N.J.; and three grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Melvin David.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. in the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
