Samuel Silverman

WARWICK — Samuel Silverman of 135 Gillooly Drive, founder of Samuel Silverman Co. in Providence in 1953, died Saturday at Rhode Island Hospital. He was the husband of Sylvia (Newberg) Silverman.

Born in Providence, he was a son of the late Abraham and Fay (Dranoff) Silverman. He lived in Warwick for 24 years.

Mr. Silverman was a member of Temple Am David, the Knights of Pythias and the Masons.

Besides his wife, he leaves two daughters, Joyce Silverman of London, England, and Sharren Zmyewski of Scotts, N.C., and a son, Michael Silverman of Boston.

The funeral service was to be held today at 1:30 p.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

B 2-23-87 V V

SILVERMAN, SAMUEL

2-87