Alfred Silverstein; lawyer, Mason, 56

PROVIDENCE — Alfred M. Silverstein, 56, of 61 Vassor Ave. died Friday at St. Luke's Hospital, New Bedford. He was the husband of Marcia (Landow) Silverstein.

A lifelong Providence resident, he was a son of Bessie (Bernstein) Silverstein, and the late Harry Silverstein.

SILVERSTEIN, ALFRED

Mr. Silverstein was a partner in the law firm of Rosenstein, Surdut Macksaud, Silverstein & Goodwin, Providence, for 10 years. He was also secretary-treasurer of the Woonsocket News Co.

He graduated from Brown University in 1948 and Boston University Law School in 1951. He served as legal counsel to former Gov. Christopher DelSesto and the state Department of Public Works under former Gov. John Chaffee, now U. S. senator. He was a member of Temple Beth-El, the Rhode Island Bar Association, Roosevelt Lodge No. 42 AF &AM, the Providence Athenaeum, the Atlantic Coast Independent Distributors Association and the 25-Year Club.

He was a World War II Army veteran serving with the War Crimes Division. He later served as a lieutenant in the Army Reserve.

Besides his wife and mother he leaves three sons, Jeffrey, Peter and Jonathon Silverstein, all of Providence, and a brother, Irwin A. Silverstein of Warwick and Narragansett.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at noon at Temple Beth-El, Orchard Avenue. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
