SIMON, Norman

Norman Simon

WARREN — Norman Simon, 76, of 4 Bagey Wrinkle Cove, an administrator for a Wall Street investment firm and a Swiss reinsurance firm for many years, retiring in 1980, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of Sybil (Blackman) Simon.

Born in New York City, a son of the late Bernard H. and Rachel (Segal) Simon, he had lived in Middletown, N.Y. where he was a mink breeder for 30 years. He moved to Providence six years ago and lived in Warren four years.

Mr. Simon was a graduate of New York University and received his MBA from Harvard Business School. He was an avid horticulturist. He was a member of Temple Emanu-El and of the Harvard Club of Rhode Island.

He was a volunteer at Miriam Hospital, serving as assistant clerk of the works for construction of the outpatient facility which was completed in 1989.

Besides his wife he leaves two sons, Bruce G. Simon of Wilson, Wyo., and Dr. Stuart A. Simon of Aptos, Calif.; two sisters, Selma Pressman of Palm Beach, Fla., and Judith Brown of Schenectady, N.Y.; a brother, Dr. Stanley Simon of Providence; and two grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are private.
