Lillian E. Sirkis

PROVIDENCE — Lillian E. Sirkis of the Jewish Home For the Aged, 99 Hillside Avenue, who with her husband owned and operated Oscar's Outlet in Woonsocket for many years, died yesterday at the home. She was the widow of Oscar E. Sirkis.

She was born in Taunton, Mass., a daughter of the late Frank and Sarah (Kaplan) Israel. She lived in Woonsocket most of her life until moving to Providence five years ago.

Mrs. Sirkis was a member of Congregation B'nai Israel and its Sisterhood, and Hadassah.

She leaves a son, Stephen M. Sirkis of Woonsocket; a brother, Harold N. Israel of Cranston, and a sister, Roselyn B. Waldman of Del Ray Beach, Fla.

A private graveside service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. in B'nai Israel Cemetery, Woonsocket.
