SKLUT, MOLLIE

PJB '11-8-10

WARWICK

SKLUT, MOLLIE, 100, of Tamarisk, 3 Shalom Dr., died Sunday, Nov. 7, 2010, at Tamarisk. She was the beloved wife of the late Harry Sklut. Born in Hungary, a daughter of the late Meir and Sadie (Moskowitz) Fried, she had lived in Narragansett and Boca Raton, FL before moving to Warwick 6 months ago.

Mollie was a co-owner, with her husband, of the former Bruce Pharmacy in Providence and Cranston for 25 years, retiring in 1972. She was a member of Congregation Beth David in Narragansett and Temple Am David in Warwick. Mollie was a past president of the former Pioneer Women, past president of Na'Amat Council and co-president of the former Jewish Home for the Aged Women's Association.

Loved by Beverly Reuter of Stoughton, MA and her late husband Gerald, Sharon Rice and her husband Ira of Cranston, Merrill, Rhonda and Bob, Amy and Craig, Pamela and Rob, the late David Paul, the late Shirley Wilk, the late Evelyn Beacken and 10 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 1:00 p.m. in SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to Congregation Beth David or Temple Am David. Shiva will be observed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Rice, 15 Annual Dr., Cranston, Monday 7-9, Tuesday and Wednesday 2-4 & 7-9 p.m.