Morris Slobin

CRANSTON — Morris Slobin, 81, of 68 Woodbine St., a painting contractor for more than 50 years, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital. The late Mollie (Winoker) Slobin was his wife.

Born in Russia, a son of the late Nathan and Anna (Winoker) Slobidinsky, he lived in Providence for many years before moving to Cranston in the early 1960s.

Later, for 10 years before retiring at age 78, Mr. Slobin was associated with the B.B. Greenberg Jewelry Mfg. Co., Providence. He was a member of Doric Lodge, F & AM, and the Palestine Shrine.

He leaves a daughter, Shirley Merithew of Cranston; a son, Myron T. Slobin of Warwick; two sisters, Hattie Rice of East Providence and Rose Brookner of Providence; a brother, Harry Slobidinsky in Florida, and five grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
