SMALLEY
ESTHER
(GOLDEN)

PJB 8-16-06

SMALLEY, ESTHER (GOLDEN), 98, of Warwick, RI, died August 14, 2006 at the Kent Nursing Home. She was the wife of the late Melvin Smalley.

Born in Woonsocket, she was a daughter of the late Samuel and Sarah Golden.

Mrs. Smalley was a bookkeeper for the former Finklestein & Sons of Woonsocket, and then served as Treasurer of the former Falls Mill Stores, retiring in 1965.

She was a former member of Temple B'nai Brith in Woonsocket, a member of Temple Beth El, the Brandeis Women's Association, Hadassah, and the Shut In Society.

She is survived by her son, Lee Smolovitch and his wife Robin Gibbs of Somerville, MA; her sisters, Dorothy Katz of San Francisco, CA and Charlotte Sugarman of Miami, FL; and her brother, Harold Golden of Cumberland, RI. She was the sister of the late Gertrude Caslowitz and Edward and James Golden.

The funeral service will be held on Thursday, August 17th at 10:00 AM in Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence, with burial in B'nai Israel Cemetery, Woonsocket. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the charity of your choice. Shiva will be private.