October 29, 1998. Beloved wife of the late Morton Smith. Residence: 65 Hazard Ave., Providence. Dear mother of Susan Levin, New Marlboro, MA and the late Deborah King Smith. Loving sister of Elsie Roland, Providence. Devoted grandmother of Benjamin S. and Hannah K. Levin. Funeral Service 2PM Friday at Temple Beth-El, 70 Orchard at Butler Avenues, Providence. Relatives and friends are invited. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Bradley Hospital, 1101 Veterans Memorial Parkway, East Providence, RI 02915. Memorial Observance to be Private. Arrangements by MOUNT SINAI MEMORIAL CHAPEL.

DORIS KING SMITH, 81, of 65 Hazard Ave., died at home yesterday after an illness. She was the wife of the late Morton Smith.

Born in Cranston, a daughter of the late James and Theresa (Hanley) King, she lived her adult life in Providence. Mrs. Smith was a 1935 graduate of Byrant College.

She helped found a community relations committee at Bradley Hospital — a forerunner of the hospital auxiliary, of which she was later president — to help acquaint the public with the hospital. She also served on the Bradley board of directors from 1965 until she retired, in 1982.

She was a member of Temple Beth-El, Providence.

She leaves a daughter, Susan Levin of New Marlboro, Mass; a sister, Elsie Roland of Providence, and two grandchildren. She was the mother of the late Deborah King Smith.

The funeral will be held today at 2 p.m. in Temple Beth-El, Orchard Street at Butler Avenue. Burial will be in Swan Point Cemetery, Blackstone Boulevard.
