Rose Snell

Warwick resident, 80, worked for 40 years as librarian at RIC

WARWICK — Rose Snell, 80, of 305 Greenwich Ave., a librarian at Rhode Island College until retiring in 1970, died at home yesterday.

Miss Snell earned her bachelor's and master's degrees at the former Rhode Island College of Education, and joined the library staff in 1930. She was a life member of the Rhode Island and American Library Associations, and also a member of the RIC Alumni Review, and the Rhode Island Retired Teachers Association.

A native of Austria who lived in Providence most of her life, she was a daughter of the late Samuel and Anna (Kastner) Snell.

Miss Snell leaves a sister, Bertha Snell, with whom she lived.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
