ISRAEL SNOW, 86, a resident of Menorah Park Center for Aging, Cleveland, Ohio, for the last two years, a retail salesman for more than 50 years, retiring in 1975, died yesterday in the Center. He was the husband of the late Marion (Goldstein) Snow.

Born in Russia, a son of the late Max and Esther Snow, he had lived in the Cleveland area for the last five years. He previously lived in Warwick and Narragansett and before that, in Burlington, Vt., for many years.

He had been a member of Temple Torat Yisrael in Cranston.

In 1927, at age 18, he hitchhiked from Providence to San Francisco carrying greetings from the mayor of Providence to the mayor of San Francisco and returned carrying greetings from San Francisco's mayor back to the mayor of Providence.

He leaves a son, Dr. Norman Snow of Shaker Heights, Ohio; two brothers, Abraham and Leonard Snow, both of Providence, and two grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held Sunday at 11 a.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Post Road.
