Marion Snow

WARWICK — Marion Snow, 79, of 1 Shalom Drive died yesterday at the Jewish Home for the Aged, Providence. She was the wife of Israel Snow.

Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Jacob and Etta (Jacobson) Goldstein, she lived in Burlington, Vt., and Narragansett before moving to Warwick 15 years ago.

Mrs. Snow owned the former Marion's, a women's apparel shop in Burlington for 36 years. After moving to Narragansett in 1972, she founded Marion's in South Kingstown which closed in 1982.

She was a member of Temple Torat Yisrael, Cranston. In Burlington, she was a volunteer worker for the American Red Cross and Ohavi Zedek Synagogue, a member of the Jewish Council of Women and Hadassah, and a Gray Lady at Mary Fletcher Hospital.

Besides her husband she leaves a son, Dr. Norman Snow of Cleveland, Ohio; a sister, Lillian Goldstein of Warwick, and two grandchildren. She was sister of the late Joseph H. Goldstein.

The funeral service will be held today at 1:30 p.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery.
