

SOFORENKO, SARAH

ism to upperclass members. They will now be permitted to go nocturnal autoriding with men until 9:30. A special clause in this new article discloses, upon close inspection, "that, if abused, it will be withdrawn."

With the same stroke, juniors and seniors have written into their constitution the privilege of attending "down-the-line" movies in the company of men.

MRS. SARAH SOFORENKO DEAD AFTER SEVERAL WEEKS' ILLNESS

JULY 19 1933,

Three months after she and her husband had celebrated their golden wedding anniversary, Mrs. Sarah Soforenko, for many years a prominent resident of this city, died in Homeopathic Hospital July 5 after several weeks' illness. She was in her 68th year.

Mrs. Soforenko was a member of the Jewish Home for the Aged, the Ladies Union Aid and of the Sisterhood of Temple Beth Israel. With her husband, Morris Soforenko, she came to this country from Russia 45 years ago and settled first in Fall River, removing some years later to Providence where she lived the rest of her life.

In addition to her husband, survivors are seven daughters, Mrs. Harry Siegel and Mrs. Nathan Torgen, both of this city; Mrs. Samuel Rosoff of Hartford, Conn.; Mrs. Charles Reisman of Wilmington, Del.; Mrs. William Bishop of Newton, Mass.; Mrs. Sadie Wolf of Winthrop, Mass.; and Miss Anne Soforenko of New York City; four sons, Samuel, Meyer and Dr. Charles Soforenko of Providence, Dr. Harry Soforenko of Los Angeles, California and 15 grandchildren.

The funeral was held last Thursday from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Siegel, 154 Emeline street, and interment was in Fall River. Rabbi Maurice M. Mazure of Temple Beth Israel, Providence, officiated and was assisted by Cantor Harry Bettman of Temple Emanu-El, this city.