SOLMER, ISRAEL

Attleboro

AUG 26, 2002 PS

ISRAEL SOLMER, 96, of 195 Pleasant St., a retired restaurant owner, died Friday at Pleasant Manor.

He was the husband of the late Rachel (Chernick) Solmer. Born in Saco, Maine, a son of the late Michael and Hanna Solmer, he had lived in Saco and Biddeford, Maine, during his early years. He then moved to Taunton, where he lived until he married, and moved to County Street in Attleboro 50 years ago.

Mr. Solmer was a former owner of two restaurants before retiring.

He was very active at Congregation Agudas Achim, and was a lifelong member of the Elks Lodge.

He leaves a daughter, Nancy Gore of Bedford, Mass.; a son, Michael W. Solmer of Attleboro; a sister, Julia Solmer of Danbury, Conn.; and two grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Sally Rome, Frieda Spriggs, Minnie Dick, and William, Samuel and Maurice Solmer.

The funeral will be held today at 10 a.m. in Congregation Agudas Achim, 901 North Main St. Burial will be in Dodgeville Cemetery.