Obituary

Miriam “Mimi” (Shoglow) Solomon, age 96, was a bright light whose flame flickered out on October 9, 2022. She was the loving wife of the late Leonard “Lenny” Solomon, who dazzled her from an early age. They were instant soulmates and were married for 72 years.

Born in Brooklyn, NY in 1925, she was a daughter of the late George and Rebecca (Seigel) Shoglow. She remained in New York with her husband, lived in Hong Kong for 8 years, then in Delray Beach, FL for 25 years, she enjoyed her last four years of life in Rhode Island. She and Lenny were avid travelers all over the world.

Mimi is survived by one son, David Solomon and his wife Hedy Nuraef of Margarita Island; one daughter, Judith Monzack and her husband Jason of Warwick; one loving brother, Lawrence Shoglow and his wife Carole; cherished grandchildren, Leah Solomon and her husband Siggi Bachmann, Joshua Solomon and his wife Julianna, Liza Solomon, Kayla Monzack and her husband Joseph Holtschlag, Elyssa Monzack and her husband Nathan Rentmeester and Nathaniel Monzack and his wife Rachael; precious great grandchildren, Milo, Saevar, Story, Zackary, Arthur, Hannah and Emily; and daughter-in-law, Lissette Erez and her husband Miki. Mimi was the mother of the late Robert Solomon and sister of the late Arthur Shoglow.

The family would like to extend their gratitude to Tamarisk Senior Assisted Living for the care given in the last four years. She felt safe, loved and surrounded by dear friends, staff and volunteers there. The family warmly appreciates the kindness from those at Hope Health Hospice in Mimi's final days.

Contributions in her honor may be made to Tamarisk Senior Assisted Living, 3 Shalom Drive, Warwick, RI 02886 or Hope Health Hospice and Palliative Care, 1085 N. Main St., Providence, RI 02904. Burial in Mount Lebanon Cemetery in Glendale, NY will be private. For tributes and shiva information please visit, www.sugarmansinai.com
