THE PROVIDENCE JOURNAL-BULLETIN

Warwick

JAKE SONDLER, 86, of 303 Greenwich Ave., a retired manager for the former Florsheim Shoe Store, Providence, died yesterday at Kent County Memorial Hospital. He was the husband of Norma (Broadman) Sondler, and the late Ethel (Israeloff) Sondler.

Born in Cumberland, a son of the late Joseph and Bessie (Singer) Sondler, he lived most of his life in Providence, and for five years in Warwick, before moving to Margate, Fla., in 1975. He returned to Warwick three years ago. He worked for Florsheim for more than 46 years before retiring 22 years ago.

Mr. Sondler was an Army veteran of World War II. He was a member of Nestell Lodge 37, AF&AM;, the Scottish Rite; Palestine Shrine; and the Touro Fraternal Association, and was a former member of Temple Emanu-El.

Besides his wife, survivors are two daughters, Joan Miller of Scottsdale, Ariz., and Marilyn Lovett of Warwick; two brothers, Sydney Sondler of Warwick, and Richard Sondler of Providence; a sister, Marion Dress of Johnston; 10 grandchildren and 8 great-grandchildren. He was a brother of the late Rose Segal, Abraham "Eddy" Sondler and Samuel Sondler.

The funeral service will be held Sunday at 11 a.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery.
