SPARRER, MILTON

PJ 10/26/2001

MILTON SPARRER, 85, of 251 Swan St., a retired machinist, died Friday at EPOCH on Blackstone Boulevard.

He was the husband of Antonia (Palomares) Sparrer. A lifelong resident of Providence, he was a son of the late Samuel and Annie (Chaskes) Bernstein. Mr. Sparrer was a machinist at the Grinell Mfg. Co. for many years, retiring in 1980, and had previously worked as a butcher in the family business.

Besides his wife, he leaves a daughter, Maria Palomares of Cranston, and a sister, Pauline Penn of Providence. He was the brother of the late Jack, Sidney and Jeanette Bernstein.

The funeral service will be held today at 2 p.m. in Shalom Memorial Chapel, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston.

SPARRER, Milton

October 26, 2001. Residence, 251 Swan Street, Providence. Beloved husband of Antonia (Palomares) Sparrer. Devoted father of Maria Palomares of Cranston. Loving brother of Pauline Penn of Providence and the late Jack, Sidney and Jeanette Bernstein. Dear cousin of Esther Gerstenblatt of Warwick. Funeral Services Sunday at 2pm in SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston. In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to the SPCA, 186 Amaral Street, East Providence, RI 02915 or your favorite charity.