P.J. 4-2-2002

SAMUEL SPIEGLE, 92, of 582 Pocasset Court, a retired auto service owner, died Sunday in Philip Hulitar Inpatient Center, Providence.

He was the husband of Ruth (Toderoff) Spiegle. Born in New York City, a son of the late Abraham and Ethel (Goldstein) Spiegle, he had lived in Providence before moving to Warwick 25 years ago.

Mr. Spiegle was the owner operator of Rayco Auto Service in Providence for 45 years, retiring in 1980.

He was an Army veteran of World War II, serving in the Pacific.

Mr. Spiegle was a member of Temple Emanu-El, the Jewish Federation of Rhode Island and the former Jewish Home for the Aged.

He was a life member of the Knights of Pythias, and had volunteered at Kent County Memorial Hospital for many years.

He was an avid gardener and enjoyed golfing.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, Alan Spiegle of Providence; and a sister, Dorothy Uditsky of Brockton, Mass. He was the brother of the late Nathan Spiegle and Anne Golden.

The funeral service will be held today at 1:30 p.m. in Shalom Memorial Chapel, 1100 New London Avenue, Cranston. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery.
