David A. Stein

NEW YORK — David A. Stein, 38, of 350 West 51st St., vice president and management supervisor of Backer, Spelvogel and Bates advertising agency, died Thursday at New York Hospital. He was a son of Harold and June M. (Shore) Stein of Warwick, R.I.

Born in Providence, he grew up in Warwick and moved to New York City 15 years ago.

Mr. Stein had worked with various advertising agencies in New York City before joining Backer, Spelvogel and Bates eight years ago. He was a founder and member of the Volunteer Advisory Board, Center for Special Studies, New York Hospital-Cornell Medical Center.

A 1968 graduate of Pilgrim High School, Warwick, Mr. Stein was graduated from Brown University in 1972 and received his master's degree from New York University.

Besides his parents, he leaves two brothers, Paul M. Stein of Minneapolis, Minn., and Robert G. Stein of Boston, and his maternal grandmother, Helena Michaels of Warwick.

Private services will be held in New York.

PJ-BB 12-16-80

STEIN, DAVID A.