OBITUARIES

Pauline Stein

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. — Pauline "Pauly" Stein, 59, an instructor in the history department at California State Northridge, died yesterday at home. She was the wife of Dr. Myron Stein.

Born in Middleboro, Mass., a daughter of the late Louis W. and Sally (Cotan) Alpert, she had lived in Beverly Hills since 1973, and before that in Providence.

Mrs. Stein had also taught history and American studies at El Camino College and California State College in Los Angeles. She was a 1953 graduate of Wellesly College, received her master's degree in 1975 from the University of Southern California and her doctorate from the University of California at Los Angeles.

She was the architectural commissioner for the City of Beverly Hills from 1983 to 1991, and a founder of Friends of Beverly Hills Water Works.

Besides her husband, she leaves four daughters, Lisa Stein of New York, and Dr. Susan Stein, Dr. Amy Stein Weinberg and Laurie Stein, all of Los Angeles; and two grandsons.

Graveside services will be held Sunday at noon at Mount Sinai Memorial Park, Burbank.
