STEINGOLD, Charles J.

5-1-99

CHARLES J. STEINGOLD, 75, of 1 Michael Drive, an international consultant in the automotive industry and a wholesale car dealer since 1958, died yesterday at Steere House Nursing and Rehabilitation Center, Providence. He was the husband of Anne (Resnick) Steingold.

Born in Pawtucket, a son of the late M.L. and Anna (Schaffer) Steingold, he had lived in Pawtucket, North Miami, Fla., and Providence, before moving to Lincoln 10 years ago.

Mr. Steingold was the owner of the former Arena Motors in Providence during the 1940s, and Charles Stuart Motor Co., North Miami, from 1952 until 1968.

He was an Army veteran of World War II. He was past commander of the Fineman-Trinkle Post of the Jewish War Veterans, a member of Temple Beth-El and a founding member of Temple Sinai, North Miami.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, Larry Steingold of Cranston; a brother, Stuart Steingold of Sarasota, Fla.; a sister, Herma Pobirs in California; and three grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Esther Kaplan.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. in Shalom Memorial Chapel, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
