STEPAK EVELYN

STEPAK, EVELYN, R. (FABER), 88, of 353 Blackstone Blvd., Providence, passed away on Thursday, April 7, 2011. "Lynn", as her family and friends knew her, was born in Providence. She was the wife of the late Samuel Stepak to whom she was married for 64 years and the daughter of the late Saul and Dorothy (Goldman) Faber. She is survived by her children, Steve and Jane (Susan), grandson, Gabriel, brothers Stanley and Samuel Faber, and many adoring nieces and nephews.

Lynn was a graduate of Hope High School and Rhode Island College and taught in the public schools, at the JCC pre-school and tutored children individually. She also worked at the Rhode Island Jewish Historical Assoc. and volunteered as the floor director for the "Senior Journal" television show for many years. Lynn was a member of Temple Beth El and its Sisterhood, and a life member of Na'amat, the Rhode Island Jewish Historical Assoc., and the Miriam Hospital Women's Assoc. She had a heart of gold and was a loving and dedicated wife, mother, daughter, and sister. Lynn was a faithful friend and was always there with a kind word and helping hand. Her listening ear, generous spirit, and inspiring activism will be deeply missed by all those who knew and loved her.

The funeral will be held Monday April 11th, 12:00PM at SUGARMAN-SINAI MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope Street, Providence, with burial at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Temple Beth El, Smile Train, or to your favorite charity. Shiva will be observed at her late residence following the funeral and burial until 4pm and 7-9pm, and Tuesday 2-4 and 7-9pm.

Mr. 'Step[illegible] employe[illegible] ha[illegible]

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely, goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
