Sidney Stern

CRANSTON — Sidney Stern, 73, of 28 Brandon Rd. died Saturday at Rhode Island Hospital after being stricken at home. He was the husband of Hannah B. (Sackin) Stern.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Abraham and Fannie Finkelstein, he lived in Cranston for 40 years.

Mr. Stern founded the Colony Carpet Co., Cranston, in 1962, and remained active in the business until retiring in 1986. He was previously a tool maker for the Brown & Sharpe Mfg. Co., and a manufacter's agent for the Empire Carpenter Co.

He was a Navy veteran of World War II. He had been a member of the former Temple Beth Torah, and a member of the Majestic Senior Guild, the Cranston Seniors, and the AARP.

Besides his wife he leaves a son, Robert A. Stern of Glocester; a daughter, Sharon Palombo of Cranston; a brother, William Stern of Mattapan, Mass.; a sister, Sally Silver of San Juan Capistrano, Calif., and four grandchildren. He was father of the late Howard Frederick Stern.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
