STONE,
PETER PAUL

Peter Paul Stone

PAWTUCKET — Peter Paul Stone, 83, a retired baker, died Aug. 30. He was the husband of Marilyn (Brown) Stone.

Born in Russia, a son of the late Samuel and Molly (Waxman) Stone, he came to this country as a young child, and moved to Pawtucket in 1985.

Mr. Stone was the owner of the former Sharon Bakery in Sharon, Mass., and worked at Rainbow Bakery in Cranston before retiring in 1989.

A highly decorated veteran, he served in the Army during World War II. He was awarded the Bronze Star seven times, and received the Silver Star as well as several commendation medals. He also received the Special Diploma, which is the highest award France gave an American soldier. He took part in major battles in Tunisia, Sicily, Normandy, Northern France, Rhineland, Ardennes and Central Europe. He was a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Besides his wife, he leaves three daughters, Roberta Benson of Venice, Fla., Sarah Deangelo of Sharon, Mass., and Ellen Byda of Clearwarer, Fla; five stepchildren, John Arruda of Cranston, Sharyon Morris of Pawtucket, Vincent Arruda of Pawtucket, Maureen Souza of Providence and Patricia St. Pierre of Lincoln; 19 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Myer and Barney Stone, Edith Cohen, Sylvia Peretzman and Judy Stone.

Burial was in Rhode Island Veterans' Cemetery, Exeter, R.I. Contributions may be made to Guide Dogs for the Blind; PO Box 151200; San Rafael, CA 94915-1200.
