STRASMICH, Charles

R I H'ER 10-7-64

CHARLES F. STRASMICH

Funeral services for Charles F. Strasmich of 61 Savoy Street, who died Sept. 23, after a month's illness were held the following day at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

Mr. Strasmich had been branch manager in Providence for the George Bentley Company, Boston food brokerage firm, until his retirement in 1954, after 42 years in the firm's employ.

A member of Redwood Lodge, F. & A.M. for 40 years, he also was a member of Temple Emanu-El, Touro Fraternal Association, Miriam Hospital Association and the United Commercial Travelers.

Born in Russia, he was a son of the late Morris and Bessie Strasmich. His wife was the late Mrs. Frances (Greene) Strasmich.

He is survived by two sons, David A. Strasmich of Providence and Irving H. Strasmich of Auckland, New Zealand; three brothers, George Strasmich of New York City, William Strasmich of Los Angeles and Samuel Strasmich of Johnston; a sister, Mrs. Minerva Stanley of New York City, and two grandchildren.