PSJ 12-11-1994

ROSE SUGARMAN, 92, of the Rosewood Manor, Pitman Street, died yesterday in the manor. She was the wife of the late Myer Sugarman.

Born in Boston, a daughter of the late Frank and Fannie (Ridler) Springer, she lived in Providence for the last nine years, previously living in East Providence for 12 years, and before that in Providence for many years.

Mrs. Sugarman attended Bryant Stratton Business College in Boston. She was a bookkeeper in Boston for many years, and a member of the Women's Association of the Jewish Home for Aged. She had been a member of the former Congregation Sons of Jacob and its Sisterhood, and of Temple Torat Yisrael in Cranston when it was known as Temple Beth-Torah.

She leaves two daughters, Estelle Gold of Cranston and Frema Goldshine of Sebastapol, Calif.; five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

The funeral will be held at a date and time to be announced. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
