Anne Summer

She and husband formerly ran the Merlen Pharmacy, Warwick

CRANSTON — Anne Summer, R.N., 65, of 104 Mason Ave., a nurse at Jane Brown Unit of Rhode Island Hospital and Miriam Hospital for many years before she retired about 1961, died yesterday at home. She was the wife of Merwin L. Summer.

She had been associated with her husband in operating the Merlen Pharmacy, Warwick for 21 years before both retired in 1982.

Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Esidor and Fannie (Ballon) Naimark, she had lived in Cranston 33 years. She had previously resided in Providence.

She was a 1942 graduate of Beth Israel School Nursing, Boston.

Besides her husband she leaves three sons, Steven J. Summer of Baltimore, Md., Philip D. Summer of Seattle, Wash., and Barry N. Summer of Takoma Park, Md.; and a sister, Sophie Pickar of Providence.

A funeral service will be held at noon tomorrow at Mount Sinai Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

FEB 4-16-86

SUMMER, ANNE