SUZMAN, Arline

Arline Suzman; English teacher at Hope High

BRISTOL — Arline Suzman, 63, of 200 Ferry Rd., an English teacher at Hope High School, Providence, for more than 18 years, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital. She was the wife of Maynard F. Suzman.

Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Joseph H. and Julia (Horvitz) Marcus, she lived in Bristol for 12 years. She previously lived in Providence. Mrs. Suzman graduated from the former Rhode Island College of Education, now Rhode Island College, in 1942, and received a master's degree from RICE in 1962. She pursued graduate studies at the Boston University School of Philosophy. She was a member of the Interfaith Choir, Bristol, and a member of the board of trustees and a past vice president of the United Brothers Synagogue.

She was a member of Martha Washington Chapter 1, Order of the Eastern Star, the Bristol Art Museum, the Bristol Historical Society, the Rogers Free Library Association, and the R.I. Jewish Historical Association for which she recently completed papers on the history of the Jewish people in Bristol.

Mrs. Suzman was an affiliate of Brown University and Rhode Island College as a teacher-critic in English for undergraduate student interns. She was founder and coordinator of the Hope High School Alumni Association, a member of the Ladies Association of the Jewish Home for the Aged, and in 1959 she was the representative of the R.I. Chapter of the English-Speaking Union in Great Britain.

Besides her husband she leaves three sons, Fredric E. Suzman of Bristol, Prof. Ivan M. Suzman of Biddeford, Maine, Bennett J. Suzman of Trenton, N.J., and two sisters, Myrna M. Altman of Providence and Dr. Shirley B. Kessler of Warren.

A funeral service will be held Sunday at 2 p.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
