SWARTZ, Philip

PJB 10-5-96

PHILIP SWARTZ, of Waterbend Drive, Jupiter, Fla., associated with Colonial Motor Sales in Providence for 34 years before retiring in 1979, died Sept. 30 in Jupiter Hospital. He was the husband of Marilyn (Botvin) Swartz.

Born in Providence, he was a son of the late Louis and Ethel (Trutt) Swartz and had lived in Providence and Pawtucket most of his life. He moved to Florida in 1979, living in Lake Worth for 17 years before moving to Jupiter.

He was a member of the Crestwood Country Club, Temple Beth-El, Redwood Lodge and The Touro Fraternal Association. He also had been a member of The Fountains Country Club in Lake Worth, where he accomplished two holes-in-hole during his golfing tenure.

Besides his wife, he leaves his twin daughters, Ina Sandrew and Janice Lightman, both of Palm Beach Gardens, Fla; a brother, Leo Swartz of Providence and Highland Beach, Fla.; a sister, Sylvia Berk of Cranston and three grandchildren.

A memorial service was held Sept. 2 in West Palm Beach, Fla.
