SYDNEY,
Albert H.

Albert H. Sydney, 52, Dies After Illness

Albert H. Sydney, 52, of 543 Angell Street, president of the Alberanne Realty Co., and the Providence Textile Chemical Company and prominent in Jewish Welfare work, died last Monday in Boston after a short illness. Rabbi Israel M. Goldman officiated at the ceremonies the following day. Burial was at the Lincoln Park Cemetery.

Born in Russia, Mr. Sydney came to Providence when a boy five years old. He graduated from the Thomas A. Doyle grammar school and the old English high school. He was trustee for the Providence Jewish Community Center and a charter member of Temple Emanu-El on Morris Avenue.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Anne R. Sydney; two sons, Harold C. and Myles Sydney; three daughters, Mrs. Laura Feinberg and Miss Z. Mildred Sydney, both of Providence, and Mrs. May Gipfell of Brooklyn, N. Y., and his mother, Mrs. Gertrude Sydney of Providence; two brothers, Jacob T. of Providence and T. Paul of New York; two sisters, Mrs. Esther Bloom and Miss Mary G. Sydney.

3-22-35