PJ--6-15-1999

TABER, ALBERT

Middletown

ALBERT A. TABER, 92, of 43 Hoover Rd., a haberdasher and the proprietor of Honorbilt Menswear in Providence for 50 years, died Sunday at home.

Mr. Taber was a longtime member of Temple Beth El in Providence. He was also a former member of the Ledgemont and Metacomet Country Clubs.

He leaves three nephews, Ronald M. Dworkin of New York City, Alan T. Dworkin of North Kingstown and Robert Cohen of Illinois, and two nieces, Fern R. Cohn of New York City and Linda Sidore of New Hampshire. He was the brother of the late Madeline Talamo and Caroline Cohen.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at the Mt. Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. A memorial observance will be private.

TABER, Albert A.

June 13, 1999. Late of Middletown, formerly of Providence. Loving brother of the late Madeline Talamo and Caroline Cohen. Adored uncle of Ronald M. Dworkin and Fern R. Cohn both of NYC, Alan T. Dworkin of North Kingstown, RI, Linda Sidore of NH, Robert Cohen of IL and many loving grandnieces and grandnephews. Relatives and friends are invited to funeral services at 11:00 AM, Wednesday, June 16 at the MOUNT SINAI MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 825 Hope at 4th Sts., Providence, RI. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Meeting Street Center, 667 Waterman Ave., East Providence, RI 02914. Memorial observance will be private. H