TABER, Sadie

Middletown

SADIE TABER, 86, of the Forest Farm Nursing Centre, an accomplished violinist and former violin teacher, died Thursday at the Centre.

Born in Providence, she was the daughter of the late Louis and Hattie (Silverman) Taber.

Miss Taber lived in Newport for about 30 years. At one time, she played in several area orchestras.

She leaves three nephews, David Adelson of Brookline, Mass., Jonathan Adelson of Vista, Calif., and Dr. Roger Taber of Seattle, Wash.; two nieces, Deborah Stear of San Marcos, Calif., and Diane Taber Glick of Fort Lauderdale, Fla. She was the sister of the late Mildred Adelson and Albert Taber.

A graveside service will be held tomorrow at noon in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
