TALAN, HERBERT 87, of 421 Bryantville Court, died Wednesday, July 4, at Rhode Island Hospital. He was the beloved husband of Helen (Lazarus) Brill Talan and the late Hazel (Hadfield) Talan

Born in Providence, a son of the late Morris and Bessie (Botvin) Talan, he had lived in Cranston for many years before moving to Warwick five years ago. Herb was a well-known pianist who played with many major bands and was also the owner of the Gob Shop in Centerdale for many years. During WW-II, he served as a captain in the Air Force and was a navigator flying many missions in Europe. In his retirement, he became quite proficient at the computer. He was a member of Touro Fraternal Association, Temple Sinai and the Masons. Among his survivors are stepchildren Mark Brill of Sarasota, FL and Susan Brill of Warwick, sisters Gladys Jacober and her husband Harold of Narragansett and Evelyn Zimberg and her husband Philip of Cranston. Herb's nieces and nephews include Alan and Jane Jacober, Frann and Charles Wohlers, Caryl and Brian Andersen as well as the late Ellen Jacober and Jeffrey and Karen Jacober. Several great nieces and nephews will miss him. The funeral service will be held Sunday at 11:00 a.m. in TEMPLE SINAI, 30 Hagen Avenue, Cranston with burial to follow at Lincoln Park Cemetery. Shiva will be observed at his late residence Sunday 7-9 and Monday 2-4 & 7-9 p.m. In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to the American Cancer Society (Cancer Research), 931 Jefferson Blvd., Suite 3004, Warwick, RI 02886 or the charity of your choice. Arrangements by SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, Cranston.
