IRENE (BLISTEIN) TALAN, 87, of Santiago Street, a former assembler and bookkeeper, died yesterday at home.

She was the wife of the late Samuel I. Talan. Born in Providence, a daughter of the late David and Esther Leah (Kagan) Blistein, she had lived in the city all her life.

She was a 1934 graduate of Hope High School.

Mrs. Talan had worked for the Calart Artificial Flower Co. — as a bookkeeper, and later, an assembler — for 25 years before retiring.

She was a member of Temple Torat Yisrael.

She loved cooking, gardening and reading.

She leaves a son, David B. Talan of Providence; five nieces; and a nephew. She was a sister of the late Sarah Kelman, Mildred Millman and Albert Blistein.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. in the Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
