Obituaries

Harry M. Tanenbaum, at 86; founder of several area firms

TANENBAUM, HARRY M.

PROVIDENCE — Harry Milton Tanenbaum, 86, of the Jewish Home for the Aged, 99 Hillside Ave., died last night in Miriam Hospital. Husband of the late Rena Ada (Herr) Tanenbaum, he formerly lived on Squantum Drive, Warwick.

Mr. Tanenbaum was the founder and president of Lakewood Hay & Grain, Inc., and Warwick Lumber & Supply Co. A past officer of the Coal Dealers of Rhode Island, he also founded the former National Coal of Providence.

He also was a founder of the Hebrew Free Loan, and Moes Chitim, Providence, and a member of Providence Hebrew Day School, and Chesed Shel Amess.

One of the last surviving members of Shaare Zadek Synagogue, Providence, he was a past president of that city's Talmud Torah, Sons of Abraham Synagogue, and Beth Israel (Anshe Austria).

Born in Austria, he was a son of the late Jacob and Scheindel (Korn) Tanenbaum. He had lived in Providence from 1913 to 1957.

Mr. Tanenbaum leaves two sons, Jacob Tanenbaum of Warwick, and B. Samuel Tanenbaum of Claremont, Calif.; four daughters, Mrs. Muriel Ruben of Wilmette, Ill., Mrs. Leo Zeftel of Wilmington, Del., Mrs. Leslie Grey of Ossining, N.Y., and Mrs. Harvey Switzky of Sycamore, Ill.; a brother, Dr. Lewis Tanenbaum in Florida; three sisters, Mrs. Bertha Lipsey in New York, Mrs. Helene Berger of Providence and Mrs. Rose Fabian of Goldsboro, N.C., and 16 grandchildren.

His funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. in Temple Beth Am-Beth David, Gardiner Street, Warwick. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

TANENBAUM
Harry M.

The Providence Journal, Thursday, January 14, 1982

Obituaries

H.M. Tanenbaum; company president, a religious leader

PROVIDENCE — Harry Milton Tanenbaum, 86, of the Jewish Home for the Aged, 99 Hillside Ave., died last night in Miriam Hospital. Husband of the late Rena Ada (Herr) Tanenbaum, he formerly lived on Squantum Drive, Warwick.

Mr. Tanenbaum was the founder and president of Lakewood Hay & Grain, Inc., and Warwick Lumber & Supply Co. A past officer of the Coal Dealers of Rhode Island, he had also founded the former National Coal of Providence.

He also was a founder of the Hebrew Free Loan, and Moes Chitim, Providence, and a member of Providence Hebrew Day School, and Chesed Shel Amess.

One of the last surviving members of Shaare Zadek Synagogue, Providence, he was a past president of that city's Talmud Torah, Sons of Abraham Synagogue, and Beth Israel (Anshe Austria).

Born in Austria, he was a son of the late Jacob and Scheindel (Korn) Tanenbaum. He had lived in Providence from 1913 to 1957.

Mr. Tanenbaum leaves two sons, Jacob Tanenbaum of Warwick, and B. Samuel Tanenbaum of Claremont, Calif.; four daughters, Mrs. Muriel Ruben of Wilmette, Ill., Mrs. Leo Zeftel of Wilmington, Del., Mrs. Leslie Grey of Ossining, N.Y., and Mrs. Harvey Switzky of Sycamore, Ill.; a brother, Dr. Lewis Tanenbaum in Florida; three sisters, Mrs. Bertha Lipsey in New York, Mrs. Helene Berger of Providence, and Mrs. Rose Fabian of Goldsboro, N.C., and 16 grandchildren.

His funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. in Temple Beth Am-Beth David, Gardiner Street, Warwick. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.