TANNENBAUM, SIDNEY

PJB - 6-29-04

SIDNEY TANNENBAUM, 91, of Metaom Avenue, a retired food broker, ded Friday at the Deptartment of Veeran Affairs Medical Center, Provience.

He was the husband of the late Ruth (annon) Tannenbaum. Born in New aven, Conn., a son of the late Maurie and Rae (Goldblatt) Tanenbaum,he moved to Rhode Island in 1959, and to Bristol in 2004.

Mr. Tannenbaum served in the Army luring World War II. He supervisd radio operators in the South Pacific and operated a radio outpost on Maekula Island, giving warning of appoaching enemy ships and informaton on crashed airmen. He was honored in 2002 at the Newport Naval ollege for his service during the Batle of Midway.

Mr. annenbaum was a member of Temle Sinai.

He aves a son, James Tannenbaum f Cranston; two sisters, Beatrice enberg and Zelda Diamond, both of Fort Lauderdale, Fla.; and a brother Leon Tannenbaum of Coco Beach, la.

A graveside service will be held today a 10 a.m. in the Rhode Island Veterais Cemetery, Exeter.