TAPPER,
Rose Leah

PJ 11-25-1999

ROSE LEAH TAPPER, 93, of 1085 North Main St., a retired saleslady, died Tuesday at Miriam Hospital.

Born in Russia, a daughter of the late Benjamin and Rebecca (Eisensnide) Tapper, she had lived in Pawtucket for many years, moving to Providence in 1979.

Mrs. Tapper had been employed at City Hall Hardware for 17 years, and at New York Lace for 7 years, retiring in 1971. She was a member of Congregation Ohawe Shalom, Pawtucket.

She leaves a brother, Charles Tapper of Cranston. She was the sister of the late Samuel and Anna Sarah Tapper.

The funeral was held at Lincoln Park Cemetery.

TAPPER, Rose Leah

November 23, 1999. Beloved Daughter of the late Benjamin and Rebecca (Eisensnide) Tapper. Residence; Summit Pavilion. Loving Sister of Charles Tapper, Cranston and the late Samuel Tapper and Anna Sarah Tapper. Funeral Service was Wednesday. In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to Hospice of Rhode Island, 169 George St., Pawtucket, RI 02860. Shiva to be private. Arrangements by MAX SUGARMAN MEMORIAL CHAPEL.