MAX TARNAPOL

Funeral services were held Monday at Lincoln Park Cemetery, for Max Tarnapol, 50, who died after an illness which confined him to the New England Baptist Hospital in Boston.

Although Mr. Tarnapol was born in New York, he was educated in Providence. He worked for the Haskell Manufacturing Co. and the Lumb Knitting Co. in Pawtucket. After working as an agent for the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company in Pawtucket, he was made assistant manager of that branch.

Among the organizations to which he belonged are Redwood Lodge, A. F. and M.; Pawtucket Lodge, B'nai B'rith; the Jewish Community Center, and Temple Emanu-El.

Mr. Tarnapol is survived by his wife, Freda; a son, Staff Sergt. Lewis Tarnapol; a daughter, Ruth S. Tarnapol; four sisters, Mrs. David Sossin, Brooklyn, Mrs. Jerome D. Soloman of Pawtucket, and Miss Gertrude B. Tarnapol, and Mrs. Eli Adelman of this city.
