Teitz, Harry

PJB 12-2-02

HARRY TEITZ, 91, formerly of Rovensky Avenue, a retired co-owner of Indesign, and a retired stockbroker, died Saturday at Jewish Nursing Home, Longmeadow, Mass.

He was the husband of Betty Teitz. Born in Newport, he was a son of the late Harry and Anna Teitz.

Mr. Teitz, with his wife, owned Indesign on Long Wharf before retiring in 1993. He had previously worked as a stockbroker for Diamond & Doorley, and was a former owner of the Friedman & Teitz Produce Co.

He was an Army veteran of World War II, and received a Purple Heart.

He was a longtime member of Touro Synagogue.

He was a graduate of Rogers High School, where he was an All-State football player, and a graduate of Rhode Island State College, now the University of Rhode Island.

A golf enthusiast, he was a charter member of Wanemetonomy Golf and Country Club.

Besides his wife, he leaves a daughter, Bunny Duckman of Longmeadow, and two grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. He was the brother of the late George Teitz.

A graveside service will be held tomorrow at 1 p.m. in Beth Olam Cemetery, Middletown.
