Basil Temkin

CRANSTON — Basil "Baye" Temkin, 64, of 425 Meshanticut Valley Parkway, an elementary school guidance counselor in the Warwick School System for 31 years retiring four years ago, died yesterday at the Jewish Home for the Aged, Providence. She was the wife of Jacob N. Temkin.

Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Theodore G. and Lamprini (Bratiotis) Pliakas, she lived in Cranston since 1979, previously living in Warwick.

She received her bachelor of science degree from the University of Rhode Island in 1948. She was a member, and had been a House Mother, of Alpha Delta Phi Sorority at the University of Rhode Island.

She was a member of the Board of Trustees of Temple Emanu-El, and was a past president of the Temples Sisterhood. She was a member of the Miriam Hospital Women's Association, and a member of the board of trustees of the Jewish Home for the Aged. At the time of her death, she was the president of the Women's Association of the Jewish Home for the Aged. She was a member of the board of the Alperin/Schechter School.

Besides her husband she leaves a step-son, Alan E. Temkin of San Diego, Calif.; a stepdaughter, Elizabeth P. Temkin of Los Angeles, Calif.; a brother, Eustace T. Pliakas of Providence, and a sister, Demetra P. Hills of Cranston.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. at Temple Emanu-El, Morris Avenue, Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
