CHARLES TEMKIN

Funeral services for Charles Temkin, 76, of 546 Wayland Avenue, who died Aug. 29, were held Tuesday at Temple Emanu-El. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery. A founder and officer of Temkin Tobacco Company, Inc., he was the husband of Rose (Pullman) Temkin.

Rabbi Eli A. Bohnen and Cantor Ivan Pearlman officiated at the services. Bearers, all nephews, were Charles B., Dean N., David B. and Merrill N. Temkin, Dr. Irving A. Beck, Noah T. Saxe, Edward D. Feldstein, Shepard J. Freed, Malcolm R. Makowsky, Dr. S. Frederick Slavsky, Herbert L. Triedman and Leon H. Temkin.

He was a former president of the Providence Hebrew Free Loan Association and a founder and member of the board of the Providence Hebrew Day School.

Mr. Temkin was a former president of the Patrons Association of the University of Rhode Island and president and treasurer of the Zionist District of Providence. He also was once chairman of the Jewish National Fund of Providence.

Mr. Temkin was a former member of the board of the General Jewish Committee, and a member of Temple Emanu-El, Touro Fraternal Association, Jewish Home for the Aged and the South Providence Hebrew Free Loan Association.

He was born in Russia, a son of the late Noah and Bessie (Bolotow) Temkin, in 1889. He had resided in Providence since 1905.

Besides his widow, Mr. Temkin leaves three sons, Jacob N. Temkin of Pawtucket, Martin M. and Noah, both of Pawtucket; two brothers, Nathan Y. and Jacob S. of Providence; one sister, Mrs. Jacob M. Saxe, also of Providence, and five grandchildren.
