TEMKIN, DAVID born June 30, 1923, died Wednesday evening at the Miriam Hospital, in Providence. Mr. Temkin was a graduate of Hope High School where he excelled in the classroom and as an athlete.

He went on to attend Brown University and become President of Temkin Tobacco and New Vermont Creamery. He had a lifelong love of tennis and was a ranked amateur in his teens and early twenties. Mr. Temkin leaves behind his wife Elaine Baker Temkin, two daughters, Nancy Temkin Namanworth (and her husband Phillip) of New York, NY and Elizabeth Temkin of Denver Colorado, and his four grandchildren, Lily Namanworth and Becca, Max and Kate Winslow. He is the brother of Bernice Freed and the late Leon Temkin and Gertrude Makowsky. His many loving friends and relatives will forever miss his zest for life and unique sense of humor.

Services will be held TODAY, Friday, February 8, 2008 at 11:00 AM at Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope Street, Providence. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the American Lung Association of Rhode Island, 260 West Exchange St., Suite 102b, Providence, Rhode Island 02903.
