MRS. S. J. TENENBAUM
SAMUEL J. TENENBAUM

Double funeral services for Mrs. Sofia (Buchwald) Tenenbaum, 75, who died Nov. 22 after a short illness, and her husband, Samuel J. Tenenbaum of 126 Early Street, founder and president-treasurer of the Superior Glass Co., Inc. of Providence, who died just a day after his wife, were held on Sunday at the Max Sugarman Funeral Home. Burial was in Congregation Sons of Israel and David Cemetery.

Mrs. Tenenbaum was a member of Temple Beth El, Women's Pioneer, the Jewish Home for the Aged, Hadassah, the Golden Agers Club of the Jewish Community Center, and of Miriam Hospital.

Mr. Tenenbaum founded the glass company in 1924. He was a member of Temple Beth El, the South Providence Hebrew Free Loan Association and the Jewish Home for the Aged.

The couple leaves two sons, Meyer and Fred S. Tenenbaum, both of Providence; a daughter, Mrs. Howard D. Silverman of East Greenwich, and four grandchildren. Mrs. Tenenbaum is also survived by one brother, Samuel Buchwald of New York City.
