ESTELLE TETELBAUM, 80, of 711 South Hollybrook Drive, Pembroke Pines, Fla., and formerly of Cranston and Warwick, died Sunday at Rhode Island Hospital, Jane Brown Unit, in Providence.

She was the wife of Max Tetelbaum; they had been married for 60 years. Born in Providence, the daughter of the late Joseph and Bella (Schwartz) Slepkow, she had lived in Cranston before settling in Warwick, where she had lived for 19 years before moving to Pembroke Pines 10 years ago.

She was a member of the Cranston Senior Guild and the Crestwood Country Club.

Mrs. Tetelbaum was a member of Hadassah. She was a former member of Congregation Ohawe Shalom and Temple Beth-El, and of the Women's Association of the former Jewish Home for the Aged.

Besides her husband, she leaves two sons, Kenneth and Richard Tetelbaum, and a daughter, Joan Carvalho, all of Narragansett; and four grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Sanford Slepkow Slater.

The funeral service will be tomorrow at 1 p.m. in the Shalom Memorial Chapel, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
