Minnie Tolchinsky

CRANSTON — Minnie Tolchinsky, 82, of 50 Birch St. died yesterday at home. She was the wife of Harry H. Tolchinsky.

Born in Boston, a daughter of the late Joseph and Sadie (Kaufman) Cardon, she lived in Cranston for 45 years. She formerly lived in Warwick. Mrs. Tolchinsky was a graduate of a business school in Woonsocket. She was a founder of a Cranston Girl Scout troop and a leader for 10 years including the period of World War II. She was a volunteer worker at Miriam Hospital. She was an instructor for the American Red Cross, and the former Temple Beth-Israel, Providence, in its cancer program.

More than 50 years ago, she was the first president of the Intermediate Miriam Hospital Association. She was a member of Temple Sinai, and had been a charter member of Temple Torat YIsrael. She was a member of the Women's Association of the Jewish Home for the Aged, and a member of Hope Link, and the Cranston Seniors Guild.

Besides her husband she leaves a daughter, Betsy Ellman of Warwick; a brother, Dr. Hugh Cardon of New York; five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. She was mother of the late Stanley Tolchinsky, and sister of the late Esther White.

The funeral service will be held today at 1 p.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
