TOLMAN,
CELIA

PJB

ELSEWHERE

TOLMAN, CELIA, 91, quietly passed away in her sleep in Glastonbury, CT after suffering declining health in recent years. A long time resident of Providence, Celia managed the Alice Building for over four decades before retiring. She continued her career as a bookkeeper for the Providence Hebrew Day School prior to retiring a second time.

Celia led an active social life, was a well-known volunteer for many organizations, and participated in Republican politics at the local level. Her major hobbies were managing her real estate holdings and swimming.

Among her survivors are nephews, Herbert Hoffman of Ogunquit, ME and David Starr of Rockport, MA, her beloved grandniece, Kim Hoffman of Glastonbury, CT, and her grandnephew, Barry Hoffman of Los Angeles.

A funeral service will be held at the Manchester (NH) Hebrew Cemetery on South Beech Street, Friday, December 15 at 1:00 PM. Contributions in Celia Tolmans memory may be made to the Providence Hebrew Day School or the Jewish Community Center in Providence.