TRACHTENBERG, ARON

PJB 8-10-03

ARON TRACHTENBERG, 57, of Hillside Avenue, a retired business owner, died yesterday at home.

He was the husband of Caren (Diamond) Trachtenberg. Born in Russia, a son of the late Samuel and Janice (Berger) Trachtenberg, he had lived in Pawtucket since 1949.

Mr. Trachtenberg was the operator of A. Trachtenberg Wipers and Textiles, which he founded, from 1978 until last year. He also founded and operated the Textile Warehouse.

He was a graduate of Providence College.

He was an active member of Temple Emanu-El, and a member and past president of the Pawtucket Hebrew Free Loan Association.

A devoted New England Patriots fan, he had been a season ticketholder for 20 years.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, Marc Trachtenberg of New York City; and a daughter, Bethany Sutton, and a grandson, Zachary Sutton, both of Pawtucket. He was the brother of the late Sanford Trachtenberg.

The funeral service will be held today at 11 a.m. in Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
