TREISTMAN, Rose

ROSE (DAVIDSON) TREISTMAN, 94, of Main Avenue, a retired office manager, died Saturday at the Harborside Healthcare Greenwood House.

She was the wife of the late Dr. Saul Treistman. Born in Russia, a daughter of the late Jacob and Eva Davidson, she came to the States as a child and lived in Rhode Island for the rest of her life.

A graduate of Commercial High School in Providence, she was a bookkeeper, and eventually ran her husband's office and assisted him in his practice.

Mrs. Treistman was a life member of the former Jewish Home for the Aged, a member of Hadassah, and a former member of Temple Sinai. During World War II, she volunteered as a translator of Yiddish letters for people with relatives in Europe. She was an avid card player.

She leaves two sons, Richard Treistman of Englewood, N.J., and Lewis Treistman of West Greenwich; and four grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Morris and Celia Davidson.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

TREISTMAN, ROSE (Davidson)

November 25, 2000. Beloved wife of the late Dr. Saul Treistman. Residence: 1139 Main Ave., Warwick. Dear mother of Richard Treistman, Englewood, NJ and Lewis Treistman, West Greenwich. Loving sister of the late Morris and Celia Davidson. Devoted Grandmother of Michelle, Dana, Lauren and Stephen. Funeral Service 11:00am Tuesday at SUGARMAN-SINAI MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope St., Providence. Relatives and Friends are invited. In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to the Alzheimer's Association, 245 Waterman Ave., Providence, RI 02906. Memorial observance immediately following the service at the home of Lewis and Jean Treistman, 572 Fish Hill Road, West Greenwich.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
