BENJAMIN H. TRINKEL

Benjamin H. Trinkel of 500 Angell Street, a former director of the Outlet Co., died unexpectedly March 27 at the Montmarte Hotel in Miami Beach, Fla., where he had been vacationing. He was 76.

Mr. Trinkel was a director and Men's furnishings buyer for the department store from 1925 to 1960. He retired two years ago.

Born in New York City on Feb. 4, 1887, he was a son of the late Louis and Sarah Trinkel. He grew up in Atlanta, Ga. but returned to New York and entered the merchandising field almost 60 years ago.

He came to the Outlet in 1913, as a buyer of umbrellas, luggage, handbags and leather goods.

He leaves his widow, Caroline (Abraham) Trinkel and three children, Murray H. Trinkel of Providence, Mrs. Norman Tillis of Providence and Mrs. Maxwell Packer of Fall River, 10 grandchildren and one great-grandson.
