Ida Troob

CRANSTON — Ida Troob, 86, of 85 Waldron Ave. died yesterday at Rhode Island Hospital. She was the widow of Hyman Troob.

Born in Russia, she was a daughter of the late Jacob and Sarah (Pavlovsky) Gordon. She lived in Providence for more than 43 years before moving to Cranston, where she lived for the last 30 years.

Mrs. Troob became president of the former Little Folks Jewelry Co. in Providence in 1941 upon the death of her husband, who had founded the business 20 years earlier. She retired in 1960.

Mrs. Troob was a member of Temple Beth-El, its Sisterhood and Hadassah.

She leaves a son, Irving A. Troob of Rehoboth, Mass.; two sisters, Leah Troob of Providence and Lillian Bessell of West Warwick; four grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

The funeral service will be tomorrow at 2 p.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

TROOB, IDA
